¿NO ESTÁS LISTO? ¡NO HAY PROBLEMA!
Si bien el Adviento es un momento hermoso para prepararse para la venida del Señor, a menudo nos envolvemos tanto en todas las preparaciones para la Navidad que nos olvidamos por completo del Adviento. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que, a pesar del estrés que podamos sentir al pensar en lo cerca que está la Navidad, estamos llamados a regocijarnos porque el Señor está cerca. El estrés que sentimos puede deberse al miedo: miedo de no poder terminar las compras antes de la Navidad, miedo de que a la gente no le gusten los regalos que he comprado o miedo de olvidar a alguien que debería estar en mi lista. Pero, ¿alguna vez has notado que es mucho más fácil cuando tienes a alguien que te acompaña en las compras, o te ayude a escribir las tarjetas navideñas o a decorar el árbol? No temas", dice el profeta Sofonías en la primera lectura (Sofonías 3,14). Nos dice que el Señor no viene a castigarnos por esperar hasta el último minuto

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Years ago, the trick question on religion quizzes would be to name all the liturgical colors, or the colors of the vestments worn at Mass. Rose is a color seldom seen, used at most two days a year. Today, "Gaudete Sunday," is one of those days. The name of the day is drawn from an opening verse in the old Latin Mass texts: Gaudete is Latin for "Rejoice!" This year's Gospel certainly reflects that mood as Elizabeth feels her infant within her leaping for joy at the presence of Mary. Mary's visit to her aged cousin is an act of compassion between women, as two kinswomen who are bearing children into the world share their joy. Some churches retain the custom of having the priest wear rose vestments today, and many will use a rose candle in the Advent wreath. Violet is the official color for Advent and Lent, but many parishes employ different hues for each season, trying to keep them distinct. In medieval times, dye was costly, and poor parishes used unornamented plain cloth for vestments. Dyes were expensive and some colors, particularly purple, difficult to achieve. In England, purple dye was made from mollusks, yielding at best a deep indigo or blue and not the desired violet. Thus, the color of Advent in the British Isles has long been a deep blue, reminding many people of Mary's presence at the heart of the Advent mystery. That theology is largely unplanned: it's all because of the clams!

III DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Este es el tiempo propicio para anunciar la liberación de los pueblos y de los hombres, por eso al encender la tercera vela de esta corona de Adviento, anunciemos con ella la Buena Noticia: el Señor viene a salvarnos, ya es hora de abandonar el miedo, ya es hora de decir sí a Dios.

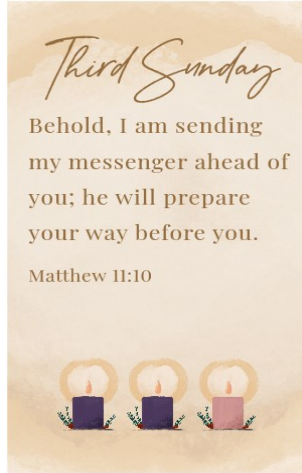

¡Ven pronto Señor que te esperamos!

Para aliviar el sufrimiento de los que tienen el corazón destrozado...

Para aliviar el hambre de los hambrientos de pan, de amor y de Dios...

Para aliviar el cansancio de los que no encuentran sentido a la vida...

¡Ven pronto Señor que te esperamos! ¡Ven pronto Señor Jesús! ¡Ven pronto a salvarnos!

Advent Week 3 -

Prayer for Joy

This third week of Advent, let us remember that the good news of Jesus' birth has the power to bring us great joy this Christmas season. Our joy isn't dependent on what is going on in our life, in our world, or the people that we are with. It doesn't depend on the gifts we give or the gifts we find under the tree. No earthly thing can ever give us complete joy. Our joy comes from you. That joy that flooded the hearts of the shepherds, the angels, the wise men, the hosts of heaven, and Mary and Joseph is the joy that still has the power to overwhelm our hearts with rejoicing.

Father, you offer that same joy to us now if we know you and recognize Jesus as our Savior and Lord. You gave us a reason to celebrate when you gave us the unspeakable gift of Jesus Christ. You came to dwell among us. You went to Calvary's cross for us. You overcame death and rose from the dead for us. You forgive our sins and give us eternal life when we believe in you. Our joy doesn't come from our jobs, our finances, or our success. Our joy doesn't come from what we have on earth or who we are with. Our joy is a gift. It is the gift that you gave us that first Christmas in Jesus Christ. Our joy is encompassed in our Savior, King Jesus. Flood our hearts with joy this Advent season as we reflect on the good news of Jesus' birth. In Jesus' precious name we pray. Amen.
